PROFILE

I am a violist and have performed at the White House and in Chicago, New York, and California. I currently play viola in the Youth Chamber Orchestra in Temple University's Center for Gifted Young Musicians. I also perform nationally with the Perfect Fourth Quartet through the Sphinx Organization. After training with Project 440, I co-designed a classical music presentation and presented it to Philadelphia elementary school students. I have attended summer programs at NYO2 (where I performed at Carnegie Hall), Boston University Tanglewood Institute (BUTI), Luzerne Music Center, and the Sphinx Performance Academy in Chicago and Cleveland.

During the summer of 2016, I was selected to represent the United States at a two-week leadership program at the International School of Karuizawa in Japan with middle school students from 30 different countries. I also participate in the Kimmel Music Center's Showstoppers musical theater program and I am an alumnus of Schoolyard Ventures, a program that trains middle and high school students to develop their own entrepreneurial ideas. I am a proud PMAY and Primavera Foundation Artist.
